LIGHT FLASHES.

What the Reporters Learn on Their Tour Through the City.

"Bigger Student" at Turner hall tonight.

G. W. Bolton was fined $5 for vagrancy this morning.

Paul Otto Zehn was licensed this morning to wed Miss Thelma Hein.

No dances at the beer gardens last evening for the first time in a year.

The report of the City Collector for the week shows the receipts to be $541.58.

Rosella Allen, aged 14 months, died on the 9th of inflammation of the bowels, in the Fourth ward.

Cummings was fined $7 this morning for beating and striking. The case against Johnson was continued.

Mr. M. Boderman and Mr. Buschberger went out buggy riding on Sunday. The horse ran away and both gentlemen jumped from the buggy, sustaining slight injuries.

Professor Roland and Mr. Arthur, of Chicago, and John Ristock had a high time around the camp fire last night, and the Indian war dance was done to perfection.

Mr. Kollie Meyer, one of the contestants in the coming skating match, broke his arm while skating at the rink Saturday evening. The match has therefore been postponed.

Rev. Dr. Neal, of the First Presbyterian church, preached a graphic and eloquent sermon yesterday morning, taking for his text the words "Ye are bought with a great price."

A man named Clay was arrested on Saturday for leaving his team alone, but it turned out it was only a horse, and as the affidavit stated it was a team the case was dismissed.

A Liver representative witnessed a performance of the Ford Opera company at Galveston Saturday, and can promise a pleasant entertainment for those attending Turner hall tonight.

The hop at Fire company No. 2, held given by the Young Men's Benevolent association Saturday night last, was largely attended and pleasantly enjoyed. It will be repeated monthly.

Charley Bandier sang a beautiful Alsatian song, entitled, "Zillertal ist mein Freud," and the Misses Annie and Gerie Nisan danced a hornpipe at the Young Men's Benevolent association ball on Saturday.

J. A. Sweeney, the fine scenic artist and painter, of Houston, known to the boys as "the lion tamer," has secured a contract for the decorative work on the ticket office of the Sunset railway in the Menger hotel.

Pat Murray was creating a disturbance in his house Saturday. Officer Westmoreland went around to arrest him, when he threatened the officer first with a chair, then with a pillow. He eventually gave himself up.

Mr. E. C. Tatum, well known in this city, was arrested on the charge of larceny this morning. He has not yet exhibited very violent manifestations of his disorder, and his friends hope that rest and attention from excitement will bring about a speedy cure.

The District court was engaged this morning in hearing the case of G. H. Helbrock and wife against the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio road, it being a suit for $800 damages which Mrs. H. sustained by reason of injuries inflicted on her by the cars of defendant.

Officers Harris and Abbey early on Sunday morning observed a dog acting curiously, snapping at them as they passed by, and frothing at the mouth, in front of A. B. Frank's residence, on Alamo street, and as concluded to put him beyond the power of harm doing by shooting him.

Dr. Ozil, who was run over by a team last Thursday, near the Immigrant home, at the Sunset depot, has died from the effects of the accident. He was a stranger to our city and was quite aged. He is said to leave a family somewhere in the East, though their place of residence is unknown.

We call attention to the advertisement of Harper & Brothers' publications, to be found in another column. Harper's Monthly, Weekly, Bazar, Young People, and Franklin Square Library, should be in every home, and no better investment can be made with the same amount of money. Now is the time to subscribe as volumes commence with the New Year.

Got away. This morning Officer Coy arrested a well known thief and brought him to police headquarters; here he made a break, and getting away jumped on Pound Master Gleason's horse, which was standing outside, and got clear off. The horse was worth $60, the saddle and bridle about $30.

Went Dimmycratic. From the Washington Dispatch: A postoffice inspector, just returned from a trial in North Carolina, states that while he was waiting in court for the case upon which he was called, a jury came into the room, and he noticed that seven were white and five colored.

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon a verdict?" asked the clerk in that solemn manner which pertains to court clerks.

"We are, sir," responded an old gray-headed negro who had been made foreman of the jury.

"What is the verdict?" asked the clerk.

"Why, Judge," said the colored foreman, looking up to the court, "the jury are gone Dimmycratic."

A good boy to carry a horseback route. Apply at this office.

How It Feels. Of Kentucky folk the more you drink the more you think that of the earth you are the King, at Gallagher's corner. 11-30-11

Madam F. Thompson. Ladies' hair dresser, 326 Houston street, has just received a fine line of hair goods in the latest styles. Also perumery, toilet articles, and hair care goods, etc. 11-30-11

Notice of Dissolution. The firm of Hannin & Standen being dissolved by limitation, Mr. A. E. Standen retaining the portion is hereby given to all persons indebted to us, to call and settle their accounts, so as to enable us to close up the firm business. Thanking our patrons for past favors and soliciting continuance of the same for the new firm. J. W. HANLIN, A. E. STANDEN.

Referring to the above I take pleasure in informing the citizens of San Antonio, and the public generally, that I will continue the furniture business at the old stand, and shall always endeavor to meet the wants and wishes of my patrons. (10-10-35) J. W. HANLIN.
